Hungarian Rebels Prepare for Stand In Budapest As Reds Surround City

VIENNA (P)—Hungarian freedom fighters have decided to make a last-ditch stand against the Soviet war machine.

A group of Hungarians are determined to make a stand in Budapest, in the same spot where they held off Russian troops and tanks last week, according to a rebel radio station last night.

The people in the area are throwing up barricades and digging trenches, according to the rebel report. But, from the way the situation shapes up, those trenches may well become graves.

Russian forces are reported to have surrounded the district and the Russian high command is said to be bringing in more and more reinforcements.

"The entire Hungarian nation is crying for help," according to the broadcast.

Western diplomats have reported the Hungarian rebels weren't the only ones who lost when Russia crushed the revolt.

The diplomats believe it also means that Russian Communist Boss Khrushchev lost out to the Stalinists in the Kremlin.

Latest reports from Radio Budapest indicate the Russians are trying to put a little sugar-coating on their bullets.

The Red Radio broadcast a message from Soviet Premier Bulganin saying Russia will ship food and other supplies to Hungary immediately.

No Action To Be Taken By J-Council

No official action will be taken to reprimand students involved in Halloween evening activities by Judicial Council, Dave Burton, chairman, has announced.

"The events that took place on the oval and at the forestry building were not important enough to warrant any further investigation," Burton said in his letter to Cogswell.

However, the Council agreed that under other conditions, the entering of dorms may have been treated differently.

"But we believe that the group action was not motivated by any malicious intent to destroy, molest or steal the property of any women or of the University," the Council said.

Burton added that the University should carry on any investigation held into the raid, but limit it to persons who actually took articles from the dormitories.

"As to these persons, the Council does not feel anything worse than a reprimand should be imposed," Burton said. "These persons could also be given the choice of paying for or returning any articles taken."

Andrew Cogswell, dean of students, said the administration would accept the recommendations of Judicial Council, but wanted it emphasized that "no future incidents are to get out of hand."

"Our students can draw a line between fun and destructive activities," Cogswell said.

As for the effigy hanging, Cogswell said he anticipated some future developments on the initiative of students involved.

Kaimin Staff To 'Rock' Tonight

We're gonna' rock around the clock tonight. Well, that's not exactly it; but we will work around the clock tonight.

To insure up-to-the-minute election returns in Wednesday's Kaimin, and to keep students posted throughout the night, a "graveyard shift" of Kaimin reporters and editors will be on hand from this evening until the paper goes to press tomorrow morning.

Three all-night outside phone connections have been secured and students can get the latest election returns from the United Press teletype machine by calling the Kaimin.

The numbers are: 9-2332, 9-2333, and 9-2334. Students are urged to call anytime during the night or early morning.

Students Return from Convention; Three Elected to Regional Offices

Eleven University students returned from Eugene, Ore., Sunday where they had been attending the Regional Conference for the Association of College Unions.

Marilyn Shope was elected to the Regional Conference Board of the member schools and Dick Riddle was named to assist her. Bill Williamson was elected to the Regional Conference Games Committee.

Highlights of the convention were a series of talks on personnel of colleges and universities. The MSU delegation led a discussion on the cooperation of students with faculty and administration.

Dick Riddle's troupe also entertained at the convention. Friday afternoon the troupe entertained in the "Fish Bowl" of the University of Oregon Student Union and again that night at 9:30 for an hour and fifteen minutes before 400 people that had gathered for a dance.

The MSU delegation was selected from members of Central

Anglo-French Forces Stage Seaborne Invasion of Egypt

By United Press

Anglo-French forces staged a seaborne invasion of Egypt this morning.

Waves of commandos smashed ashore in the Port Said area to join paratroops who had landed yesterday. Naval guns roared and jet planes pounded the beaches before waves of landing craft moved in, carrying the commandos. Later, a British and French communique announced that an entire British commando brigade was ashore, and had joined the paratroops.

In Paris, the French Defense Ministry announced that Port Said was surrounded, with Anglo-French troops occupying all its suburbs. French paratroops are reported to have captured Port Fuad across the Suez Canal from Port Said.

The British said they have full control of the El Gamil Airport. And Anglo-French planes have begun using it.

The latest Egyptian communique said "The enemy is landing new forces at Port Said by air and troops by sea. The enemy is also bombarding the city by air and through his navy."

"The Egyptian army, police and population are fighting fiercely in the streets. Our forces are in full control of the city. Morale is very high," the communique continued.

Bombings Continue

Anglo-French planes are continuing to bomb Cairo and Canal Zone cities despite a promise to the U.N. to halt bombing operations. (Continued on page two)

TROUBLE SPOT BRIEFS

From the Wires of United Press

VIENNA—Twenty-seven Americans have come safely out of embattled Hungary after two days of terror.

The group tried to get back to the Austrian border twice, and twice they were turned back by Soviet guns. For two nights they were held in an old Hungarian schoolhouse.

Early yesterday, the Russians supplied an armored car to escort the American convoy to the border.

WASHINGTON—The State Department announced that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' general condition is excellent and he may be able to return to his desk sooner than had been anticipated. After his intestinal operation last Saturday, doctors predicted that Dulles would be able to go back to work in about six weeks.

VATICAN CITY—Pope Pius said the blood of Hungarian patriots shed for liberation from Russia cries to God like the blood of Abel murdered by Cain. He warned the Russian people in a new encyclical letter that "the just liberty of peoples can never be choked in blood."

TEL AVIV—Like every war, the Suez fighting is producing its dare-devils. Such as the rescue of the Israeli fighter pilot shot down behind Egyptian lines in the Sinai Desert. An Israeli report said the pilot jumped and landed one mile from an Egyptian army camp. Egyptian patrols searched for him, while overhead a light Israeli plane circled, trying to locate him. The fighter pilot was just 400 yards from the Egyptian outpost when the plane spotted him. It landed on the desert, picked up the stranded pilot, and took off again minutes before Egyptian troops reached the area.

Missoula Students Top Frosh Results

Two Missoula students led the primary voting for freshmen delegates to Central Board last Friday. Janet McFarlane topped the list with 75 votes.

John Honey was next with 55. Gary Beiswanger, Billings, received 45 and Lynn Decker, Havre, took fourth place with 44. These four will compete in the final election for the two delegates this Friday.

"I certainly hope there is a bigger freshmen turnout for the finals than there was for the primary," Bill Steinbrenner, elections chairman, said Friday after the votes were tallied. Less than a third of the 750 students eligible to vote actually voted.

Election Party Tonight; Girls Get Late Hours

An election dance will be held in the Yellowstone Room of the Lodge tonight from 8:30 to 10:30. Music will be furnished by "The King's Men," Tomme Lu Middleton, assistant to the director of student facilities said yesterday.

Girls have been granted 12 o'clock hours to attend the Election dance. Admission for the dance is 50 cents a person.

The TV set would be on and extra radios would be placed throughout the Lodge to bring election returns to the students, Miss Middleton said.

Ground Breaking Held Saturday For University Golf Course

Construction on the first nine holes of the 18-hole University golf course started Saturday. Cost of the nine holes now under construction is estimated at $50,000.

Plans originally called for work to start early last summer, but the plans were re-drawn to allow a 200-foot strip for family housing around the course, and the work was delayed.

Ed Chinske, golf course committee chairman, said yesterday the greens could not be played on Bourke said yesterday children have pulled up many of the stakes and that some of the course will have to be re-surveyed. Jack Duke and Dean Boe, forestry students, have done the surveying.

Boboth hopes to get all the fairways disced and the greens blocked out this fall. Harvey McIntyre, local Allis-Chalmers machinery dealer, loaned the disc.

Bourke said George Sutherland, a rancher near Missoula, gave the golf course a manure spreader and manure. He said, however, the before the spring of 1958. He said the course may be playable with temporary greens next fall.

Seeding of the greens and fairways will be done by Joe Boboth and Bob Noble, University students. Both have had experience at greenskeeping and golf course maintenance.

Marcus Bourke, family housing director, and Tom Swearingen, maintenance engineer, are in charge of overall construction.

Bourke said further delay may result from children of strip house residents pulling up survey stakes.

course will need much more manure than it now has.

Bourke said he hopes an Aber Day for the golf course can be planned for next year, to pick up rubbish and repair and build fences for the course.

Chinske is now making a survey of college courses in other states, attempting to work out a plan for administration and charges for the course. He said most of the courses contacted had both greens fees and memberships, and that many allowed townspeople memberships.

Car Registration Deadline Is Set

Students who have not registered their automobiles with the dean of students' office must do so this week, according to Tom Monahan, assistant to the Dean of Students.

Fines will be levied in the next few weeks against violators, Monahan said. Registration cards are available in the Dean's office.

tions, an official Egyptian spokesman said.

In Cairo, reports are that thousands of Egyptians are flocking to join the National Liberation Army, Egypt's version of the national guard.

Many quit their jobs and headed to the Canal Zone by any means available, including hitch-hiking. Roads leading north from Cairo are choked with a mass of autos, buses, taxis, trucks and horse-drawn vehicles.

As fighting rages in the Suez Canal zone, peace seems to have come to the Sinai Desert.

Israel has accepted a U.N. cease-fire plan. An order has gone out to all Israeli soldiers, planes and ships to avoid fighting. Israeli Premier David Ben Gurion has asked for peace negotiations.

Russia's Proposal For Cease Fire Meets Opposition

UNITED NATIONS (UP)—Soviet Russia's proposal for a U.N. ultimatum in the Middle East fighting has run into a stone wall.

Soviet Premier Bulganin suggested yesterday that the U.N. set down an ultimatum to Britain, France and Israel to cease firing within 12 hours and get out of Egypt in three days.

If the ultimatum was ignored, Bulganin proposed that the U.N. send a task force, including American and Soviet troops, to stop the fighting. The task force would be under U.N. supervision.

The White House blasted the Bulganin proposal as unthinkable. White House Secretary James Hagerty said the move was an obvious attempt to divert world attention from the Hungarian tragedy.

The United Nations also turned down the Russian proposal, and U.N. delegates predicted a quick cease fire despite the Soviet effort to torpedo current plans.

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold is working to get a middle east police force ready.

Bad Day All Around For 'Tip Q-back

Grizzly quarterback Chuck McKelvie was on the losing side Saturday. His team had just been beaten by the Bobcats from Bozeman 33-14.

After the game, McKelvie's car and a car driven by Kenneth Keyes collided at the intersection of Connell and Arthur. Damage to Keyes' car was estimated at $150; to McKelvie's, $300.

Where was Keyes from? Why Bozeman of course.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY $1.98

I met a man with a rather large head
Who looked at me and finally said:

"If ever you're caught
Without any thought
And you think that you ought
To be thinking a thought,
Buy one from me before it's too late.
Thoughts for today, only one-ninety-eight."

"A reasonable price," I said and bought
The following brainy, thoughtful thought:

Tough Montana State Squad Outscores Grizzlies 33-14

By JIM BERRY

MSC's Bobcats hit every vulnerable spot in the Grizzly defense Saturday afternoon and when the game was over, still sported an unblemished season record.

The 'Cats got off to a fast start with a tally early in the first quarter; and added two more in the second period and one each in the third and fourth quarters, in getting the 33-14 win.

The Grizzlies, although leading at the end of the first quarter, were hampered by spotty playing and were unable to keep pace with the Rocky Mountain conference champs after that.

Until late in the second quarter, neither team lost control of the ball except momentarily, without first making a TD.

First Quarter

The visiting 'Cats scored on the eighth play of the game when halfback George Marinkovich went 39 yards off tackle to put the visitors ahead 6-0.

But the Grizzlies were unable to move after the Bobcat TD and were forced to punt. A Bobcat fumble on the punt, however, again gave the 'Tips possession. Gains on the ground by backs Severn Hayes and Ron Rosera, aided by a pass to end Pete Rhinehart, set up a quarterback sneak into the end zone by Roy Bray. Bray's kick was good to give the Grizzlies a 7-6 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Second Quarter

Quarterback Dave Alt passed to end Jim Posewitz on the first play of the second quarter to give them their second TD. Ron Warzeka booted the extra point.

A costly fumble after the kickoff by 'Tip Matt Gorsich gave the Aggies control of the ball and they lost little time in making it pay off. Alt scored the next Bozeman TD on a quarterback sneak.

Montana was again unable to move and punted but a tight Grizzly defense forced the visitors to follow suit. Bray passed from the MSC 33 to Rhinehart for the last MSU TD. The 20-14 score stood until halftime.

Third Quarter

Deep in MSC territory Bill Kaiserman fumbled a pass from center and was chased back to the 11 where jubilant Bobcats took over. Fullback Don Edwards ran off tackle for another MSC TD, which put them in the fore 26-14.

For the remainder of the quarter the teams battled for yardage, with the 'Tips getting a better share. MSU was in scoring position on the final third quarter play as they stood on the Bozeman 8. A Bray pass intended for Terry Hurley was intercepted, ending Montana's final serious scoring threat.

The final Bobcat tally came late in the fourth period when Edwards scored from the Montana 1. Warzeka's kick was good.

Our mental errors were responsible for the loss," Grizzly Coach Jerry Williams said of the game, which he termed "the worst this season."

Sigma Nu, Fi Alfa Falfa, Elrod Hall, Sunshine Seven Undefeated in I-M

Four intramural football teams remain unbeaten going into the final week of competition. Sigma Nu and Fi Alfa Falfa are undefeated in the A league; Elrod Hall is unbeaten in the B league and the Sunshine Seven has a perfect record in the C league.

The C league has completed competition but the Butte Rats and Craig Second North ended up in a second place tie and a playoff will be held. The playoff will be played next Tuesday.

All postponed games will be played next Monday and the post season playoffs will begin Nov. 15. Ed Chinske, intramural director, said yesterday that the schedule for the championships will be: the first place team in the A league vs. the second place team in the C league; the first place team in the B league vs. the second place team in the B league; the first place team in the C league vs. the second place team in the B league.

Revocation Order Is Held Up, Blackfoot Tavern Stays Open

The order of the Montana Liquor Control Board to revoke the beer and liquor licenses of the Blackfoot Tavern has been held up and the tavern will continue to operate pending the outcome of a "show cause" hearing.

The revoking order is being held up by a district court injunction instituted by the tavern keepers, W. C. and Edna Jones.

District Judge C. E. Comer has set Friday as the time for the liquor board to show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent.

The proprietors are striving for a court ruling permanently restraining the liquor board from executing its revocation order.

The revocation order followed the conviction May 28 of the tavern's bartender, Paul Ostrom, for selling intoxicants to a minor April 28.

The charge against Ostrom was brought by David Burton, chairman of the MSU student body's Judicial Council.

Sniffers Smell Simpkins Stink; What, and Where Remain Mystery

By GENELL JACKSON

Something stinks at Simpkins Little Theater and Bo Brown, drama director, insists it isn't "Skin of Our Teeth," the fall quarter production.

The strange odor was first noticed over a week ago. After a day or two of suspicious glances and subtle hints about trying new soaps, the smell became a chief topic of conversation.

Something was dead, but what and where? The smell grew stronger with each passing day, and seemed to penetrate through the building rather than confine itself to one area. The situation was reported to the University Maintenance department last Thursday and workmen spent two days tearing out floor boards back stage, but with no success.

Richard Howell, a senior in the drama department, crawled under the building Saturday, but unearthed only live mice and bugs.

Expert sniffers were consulted and the strongest noses agreed the source seemed to be between the walls near the switchboard. Many have ventured guesses as to what the source might be. One who claims to "have had experience with this sort of thing" believes the dead creature is a gopher.

Others are sure it must be a cat, bird, cow, or chicken. Possibilities of a forgotten Masquer have not been ruled out, Brown said.

Whatever it is, the situation is getting desperate. Brown said Monday he was again going to call the maintenance department and see if they would look into the walls.

"If something isn't done soon, we might lose some of our star players," Brown said. "On the other hand, the smell does lend a bit of reality to the ice age scenes."

MSU Flying Club Has Room for Eight Members

Persons interested in learning to fly small planes are invited to the University Flying Club meeting this evening at 7:30 in the Lodge.

The MSU flying club was incorporated three years ago as a non-profit corporation of Montana. The aim of the club is to offer low cost flying to the students and faculty of the University. The club owns two airplanes, and is contemplating the purchase of a Cessna 120 or 140 this year.

The club is entering its fourth year with almost 1000 flying hours by students without any accidents.

The club has openings for about eight new members, according to Charles Bloom, club secretary.

"Verily, a Professor 'Iggins among magazines!"

Julie Andrews, twenty-one-year-old British girl, plays Eliza Doolittle in the sensational Broadway success "My Fair Lady"—a musical adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion."

- Q. Miss Andrews, had you ever been away from your family before you arrived in this country two years ago?
- A. Never, and I still become dreadfully homesick. But I do talk with them several times a week.
- Q. By phone?
- A. No—by phonograph. We talk into recording machines, and airmail the records. They are so clear I can even hear my brothers arguing in the back-ground about whose turn is next. It is as if we were all in one room.
- Q. You never exchange the usual kind of letter?
- A. Very seldom, I'm afraid. But we post back and forth bits of particular interest—like newspaper reviews, and favorite articles from The Reader's Digest.
- Q. Just the Digest?
- A. Oh, no, there are others sometimes—but the Digest is our magazine. Mummy and Daddy have always read it, and I began when I was twelve, playing music halls. I had to miss school, and my teaching governess went through every issue with me on the run. It was part of my lessons.
- Q. Do you still read it on the run?
- A. Oh, yes—waiting for assignments, waiting for buses, even waiting for curtain cues. I hope I never have to be without it. When I wish to be amused, the Digest amuses me; and when I need to be scolded or instructed, I can always find an article that talks to me like—
- Q. Like a Dutch uncle?
- A. No, much more delightfully—more like Professor 'Iggins in "My Fair Lady" showing a new world to Eliza Doolittle.
